

Lower Camp Director (Mount Ida Day Camp)

The Mount Ida Day Camp is seeking a Lower Camp Director. This position involves being head of our youngest division of campers (3.5-5 years of age). Responsibilities include: overseeing Lower Camp Counselors and Activity Specialists, monitoring the day to day running of Lower Camp; development and implementation of lower camp weekly themes and special activities; supporting and training staff during staff orientation and throughout camp season; camper behavior management; and continuous parent communication regarding individual campers. The position covers eight weeks of summer camp (late June to mid August) and some flexible hours of pre-camp work. The ideal candidate should have a background in Camping, Education, Social Work, Youth Development or another related field. The ideal candidate will also have experience working with this age group as well as managing staff. Please contact Steven D'Arcy, Day Camp Director, at 617-928-4576 with any questions. Applications received by March 1, 2010 will receive preference for this position.

Candidates are asked to forward a cover letter, resume, and three references to:
