

ACA New England is pleased to introduce an allied professional and ACA Business Member working to market camps and other “opportunities beyond school” that serve children who are age twelve and older: TeenLife. Aptly named, TeenLife exists to connect families of teens with exciting program opportunities, including summer camps. Their website is dedicated to providing comprehensive information about teen-serving programs (including camps) and to families of teens.

You may wish to take advantage of their discount for ACA-accredited camps who join TeenLife. In addition to denoting the ACA-accredited status of camps, TeenLife is extending a membership discount to ACA-Accredited camps. The details follow.

On Sunday, 7 February, TeenLife will hold its third annual Community Service Fair from noon to 4 PM at the Chestnut Hill Mall in Brookline, MA, where forty nonprofits will share information about community service programs for teens. Approximately one thousand families are expected to attend. ACA New England will be one of the supporting exhibitors; and will distribute A Guide to Summer Camp, which includes information about the nearly 400 New England day and resident camps (including YOURS) that have the distinction of ACA Accreditation. And, TeenLife will be in attendance at THE Summer Camp Fair at Minuteman Career & Technical High School the following night, 8 February from 5-8 PM if you wish to connect with them then.

Their offer for ACA-Accredited camps follows:

ACA-Accredited camps will receive 10% off the price of Basic and Featured Profiles on TeenLife.com, as described in the chart below. Each profile includes a listing on the TeenLife.com website and in TeenLife’s online Guide to Summer Programs, as well as additional marketing benefits.
