

- What's your name?
- Where do you spend most of your camp "off-season"?
- What type of programs are offered at the camp where you work? I.E. resident/overnight programs, day programs, rental options, other, etc.?
- Is your camp a for-profit or not-for-profit organization?
- What language/verbiage does your camp use to communicate which genders it serves? (I.E. all-boys, all-girls, Boys+, Girls+, all-genders, Co-ed, etc.)
 - By leaving this an open text question, we're hoping to better understand the language camps are using to communicate this.
- For what purposes do you engage with ACA, New England?
- What other organizations do you turn to for camp-related information, support, resources, etc.?
- What popular company/business/product would you say has a brand similar to ACA, New England?
- When planning programs, who should be our main focus?
- If a program (other than the New England Camp Conference) is in-person, how far are you willing to travel one-way?
- The following are a list of topics our members identified of areas of interest for future programs. Please rank your top 5.
- Do you have any program-related suggestions for ACA, New England?
- What are barriers that prevent you from attending ACA, New England programs?
- Besides ACA, where else do you receive professional development throughout the year?
- Have you ever volunteered with ACA, New England or anywhere else?
 - YES
 - When you volunteer for ACA or other organizations, why do you volunteer?
 - What kind of volunteer opportunities would you consider?
 - NO
 - What are some barriers that have kept you from volunteering in the past?
- If someone asked you why they should join ACA, New England, what would you say?
- Where is ACA, New England doing its best work?
- Where is ACA, New England missing the mark?
- Pick your three preferred modes for engaging with ACA, New England.
- Would you be interested in participating in follow-up conversations or focus groups?